

CURRICULUM VITAE

Mark Richard Hollander
The Auction Company, Inc.
Post Office Box 962
West Falmouth, MA 02574

Mr. Hollander's full-time occupation since 1969 has been as an Appraiser and Dealer in personal property, specializing in probate situations. He is engaged solely as an Appraiser by museums, banks, law firms, insurance companies, auction houses, and by private clients throughout the United States.

He is a recognized expert witness in the valuation of personal property throughout the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

PERSONAL AFFILIATIONS

As there is no formal professional license or certificate in the field of personal property appraisers, one gains a professional designation through a myriad of appraiser's associations and organizations, including:

1. Associate Member, American Society of Appraiser (ASA)
2. Member, New England Appraisers Association (Elected Vice President of their Antiques Division, 1981)
3. Auctioneer
4. Museum Consultant for:
  - Museum of Fine Arts, Boston, Massachusetts
  - National Gallery of Art, Washington, DC
  - Mystic Seaport Museum, Mystic, Connecticut
  - Museum of Our National Heritage, Lexington, Massachusetts
  - Sandwich Glass Museum, Sandwich, Massachusetts
  - Brockton Art Center, Brockton, Massachusetts
  - Colonial Williamsburg, Williamsburg, Virginia
  - Winterthur Museum, Winterthur, Delaware
  - Hammond Castle Museum, Gloucester, Massachusetts
  - New Bedford Whaling Museum, New Bedford, Massachusetts
  - Heritage Museums & Gardens, Sandwich, Massachusetts
  - Kendall Whaling Museum, Sharon, Massachusetts
  - Lyman-Allen House, Connecticut
5. Lecturer

EXPERIENCE

- 1969-1973 Mr. Hollander owned and operated a retail antique shop.
- 1973-1979 Mr. Hollander owned and operated a wholesale antique business concerned with the buying and selling of antiques and related decorative art purchased through estate settlements being offered by law firms, banks, and private clients.
- 1979-1986 Mr. Hollander owned and operated New England Appraisal Service, performing probate and “fine arts” appraisals, as well as insurance claims settlements.
- 1984-1987 Mr. Hollander was affiliated with the Richard A. Bourne Company, Inc., an internationally recognized auction house, principally hired to appraise major estates, as well as assist in describing items and assigning values to them for published auction catalogues.
- 1987-1991 Probate Appraiser concentrating in domestic situations, as well as dealer in antiques and related decorative arts.
- 1991-1993 Affiliated with The Auction House, Richard Oliver Auctions, Inc., Kennebunkport, Maine, as Appraiser and Co-Head of Accessions.
- 1993-1997 Affiliated with Sandwich Auction House and Bay Auction in the capacity of Head Appraiser and Head of Accessions.
- 1997-Present President of The Auction Company, Inc., handling estates and consignments for banks, trust officers, and private clients.